

David also works as a Consultant Finance Director with the FD Centre who hire out part-time Financial Directors to organisations who don't want, don't need or can't afford an FD on a full-time basis but recognise that they need the service from time to time or for particular assignments as they arise.